May is the time to Sign Up for Summer Volunteer Opportunities

Sierra Madre, CA. – May 13, 2016 – Teen summer volunteers at the Sierra Madre Public Library

Sign up now for two unique and fun summer volunteer opportunities for teens going into grades seven and above at the Sierra Madre Public Library.

Summer Reading Volunteer Orientation

Teens, help make the Summer Reading Program a winner. To qualify as a Summer Reading Volunteer, attend one the training sessions on June 4 at 2:00 pm or 3:00 pm or on June 8 at 5:00 pm.

Students donate two hours or more each week during the summer and earn service credit.

At the end of the summer, volunteers receive a certificate listing the number of hours volunteered and a Thank-You party.

History Docent Orientation

Sign up now to become a Teen History Docent this summer. Orientation will take place on June 4 at 1:00 pm.

Learn about Sierra Madre's unique local history, develop public speaking skills, and earn service hours. Volunteers will be trained and will give guided tours through Sierra Madre's history using digital storyboards. Tours take place in the Library's Local History Room and the Richardson House Museum. Teens earn service credit with the Docent program.

Teens interested in either or both summer volunteer opportunities can get an application for the program on the library's website www.cityofsierramadre.com/departments/library or stop by the Library to pick up a copy.
