SPEND A RARE EVENING WITH ABRAHAM LINCOLN: AMERICA'S GREATEST PRESIDENT

Sierra Madre, CA. – October 24, 2016

Find the answers to your questions about today's politics from a President who lived 150 years ago. Join us on Tuesday, November 15, 2016 at 7:00 pm in the Sierra Madre Public Library for the unique program, "An Evening with Abraham Lincoln: America's Greatest President."

Richard Procter, Senior Writer at BRC Imagination Arts, and Sierra Madre Library Trustee, was the 'senior storyteller' for the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library in Springfield, Illinois. What he learned during six years of study on Lincoln changed his view of American history and showed him how one ordinary person can change history.

Procter won an award for his contributions to the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum, one of the most popular museums in America. Procter has worked on more than a hundred projects at BRC Imagination Arts, including three world Expos, the Kennedy Space Center, and the states of Louisiana and Texas. He was an award-winning Creative Director for the advertising agency Bert, Barz and Kirby, an Imagineer for the Walt Disney Company, and the writer/producer of more than a hundred hours of television for the Discovery Channel, TLC, the A&E Network, and PBS.

Don't miss your opportunity to be entertained, to be moved, and to learn how you can make a difference in your community and country.
