JAVIER ARMENTA

CHRISTOPHER D. CORIORILES

SEIRRA MADRE POLICE APPREHEND TWO POSSIBLE BURGALRY SUSPECTS

Sierra Madre, CA. - February 18, 2015 – Sierra Madre Police Department successfully and safely apprehended two individuals suspected of burglary. At 11:48 am, Sierra Madre Police received a call from a resident of the 400 Block of Foothill Avenue stating they had witnessed one of the suspects steal a package from their porch. The victim chased after the suspect and witnessed him jump into a vehicle. The victim notified Sierra Madre Police and provided a clear description of the vehicle and suspect. Several units searched the city and located Javier Armenta, near Jameson and Grandview. Upon questioning Javier Armenta, he informed Officers that he parked his vehicle a short distance away, which contained the stolen package and other property believed to be taken in a commercial burglary. Other observant community members saw a second man run from the vehicle and provided a description to police. Officers located and apprehended Christopher D. Corioriles, on Highland, east of Grove St. Both suspects were taken into custody without incident for suspicion of burglary, possession of burglary tools, and the theft of the package. Both suspects are residents of the Los Angeles area. Christopher D. Corioriles has a criminal history of possession of firearms. Javier Armenta has an extensive criminal history including theft and narcotics and is currently on probation for vehicle theft.
