POLICE BLOTTER REPORT
May 26 - June 2, 2013

Sunday May 26, 2013

During the evening hours, an unknown suspect entered a residence in the 100 block of North Sunnyside Avenue and removed jewelry from a bedroom drawer. The resident was away at the time and discovered the crime when she returned at 1am. The investigation revealed the suspect entered the residence through an unlocked door and removed property from the bedroom.

Overnight, an unknown suspect entered a vehicle parked in a driveway in the 2000 block of Liliano Drive by smashing the left rear passenger window. A gym bag and a small amount of coin were removed.

At 8:15pm, a black Volkswagon was travelling west on Orange Grove Avenue and was observed making an erratic right turn onto Mountain Trail Avenue. At the conclusion of the turn, the vehicle struck the east curb, traveled onto the lawn and collided with a traffic sign. The driver stopped momentarily then drove back onto the street and continued north on Mountain Trail Avenue. A witness described the driver as a female white with blond shoulder length hair. At the time she was making the turn, the driver appeared to be looking down at a cell phone. Collision debris was recovered at the site indicating that the Volkswagon would have damage to the front bumper area.
