

SIERRA MADRE POLICE DEPARTMENT
POLICE BLOTTER REPORT
June 16-23, 2013

Sunday June 16, 2013

Overnight, an unknown suspect entered a vehicle parked in a driveway in the 400 block of Grove Street and rummaged through the interior. Once inside, the suspect was also able to access the vehicle trunk and remove items from that area. The suspect took small items of value and left the scene without being seen. There was no sign of forced entry into the vehicle and the owner admitted that he had not locked the car that night.

At 6pm, a traffic collision occurred in the intersection of Oak Crest Drive and Deodar Circle. A vehicle exiting the Deodar Circle cu-de-sac, failed to yield to a vehicle travelling north on Oak Crest Circle. The parties sustained minor injuries and both vehicles were towed from the scene.

At 2pm, units responded to a report of a kidnapping at Kersting Court. On arrival officers determined that the matter was not a kidnap, but was a fight between a father and daughter. The two were travelling in a vehicle when they became engaged in a verbal argument. At one point, the daughter attempted to exit the vehicle while it was still moving. In response the father used physical force to prevent her from doing so. A battery report was completed and the investigation into the matter is continuing.

At 3:45am, a resident in the 700 block of West Sierra Madre Boulevard observed a suspicious vehicle parked in an apartment carport. The vehicle doors were open and the lights were on. He immediately notified police of the situation. As officers arrived at the location, they observed a female (suspect) standing at a carport storage compartment that had both doors open. The individual was detained and officers determined that a large amount of property was stacked on the ground a short distance away. It was determined that the suspicious vehicle belong to the suspect and it contained a large amount of property as well. Also found in the vehicle was the suspect's 8 month old son. It was determined that the suspect had been rummaging through a number of carport storage compartments, removing property and loading the items into her vehicle. During a search of the vehicle, methamphetamine was found and it was determined that the suspect was currently on probation for Burglary. An arrest was made and the District Attorney's Office subsequently filed counts of Burglary, Possession of Narcotics and Child Endangerment on the suspect. The child was released to the care of the Department of Children's services.
