

SIERRA MADRE POLICE DEPARTMENT
POLICE BLOTTER REPORT
June 23-30, 2013

Sunday June 23, 2013

A resident in the 100 block of West Grandview Avenue reported that property had been stolen from her residence over a period of months. The resident had been slowly moving into her house and did not conclude that the property was missing until she had completed unpacking. During the move in period, the owner had construction and paint contractors in her home on several occasions.

A similar crime was reported by a resident in the 400 block of Fairview Terrace. Starting in mid-February, construction was taking place at the location. When the construction concluded, the resident discovered his cameras were missing from his guest room. During construction that room was unsecured and just sealed off from the construction area with plastic liner. The construction contractors working at these locations are not related.

At approximately 2am, units on patrol observed a vehicle stopped in the roadway in the 200 block of Mariposa Avenue. The lights were on and the engine was running. When they approached, the officers found the driver unconscious at the wheel. It was determined that the individual (male 43 years of age) had been drinking heavily and he was subsequently booked for DUI.

Friday June 28, 2013

At 9pm, officers responded to the 200 block of Mariposa Avenue to investigate a report of a battery. A male and a female, who have a dating relationship, got into a verbal argument about child visitation matters. The male alleged that at one point, the female struck him in the face with an open hand. The female denied this and was supported by another adult witness at the location. Additionally there was no visible injury evident. The investigation was referred for detective follow up.
