

Movie Reviews by Sophia Duran & Stephanie Vitale

THE ADJUSTMENT BUREAU

Starring Matt Damon & Emily Blunt

Sophia: This movie could have used a few adjustments to the storyline.

Stephanie: A ludicrous attempt at speculating the extent to which one's destiny is manipulated &/or determined by chance, free will & fate.

Sophia: Without Emily Blunt this flick would have been unbearable to watch.

Stephanie: Even the best actors in the world could not salvage this wreck.

Sophia: I'm still waiting for Matt Damon to impress me. Perhaps I should be Good Will Hunting?

Stephanie: An obvious cash-over-integrity choice for Damon & Blunt. If they were unknowns their careers would end here.

Sophia: Check this out from the Library—the $1.00 Redbox fee is too much to pay for this tedious misadventure.

Stephanie: Caveat—persons of faith may find the film's witless irreverence offensive.
