

Movie Reviews by Sophia Duran & Stephanie Vitale

Stephanie:

The Help

Starring Viola Davis, Emma Stone, Octavia Spencer & Bryce Dallas Howard

Sophia: I read the book and hoped the movie wouldn't disappoint...IT DIDN'T!!!

Hands down the most significant movie I saw all year. A sobering, important film with a first-rate script & standout performances.

Sophia: The whole cast and crew deserve an Oscar for this one!

Stephanie: The Oscar should go to the extraordinary Viola Davis, whose searing performance stays with you long after the credits fade.

Sophia: The only bad thing about this movie is that it wasn't longer. I cried like

Mae Mobley when it was over! 🥦

Stephanie: An unsparing look at the merciless bigotry endured by African-Americans during a shameful period in U.S. history.

Sophia: Give a slice of Minnie Jackson's special chocolate pie to anyone who doesn't love this movie...LOL!!

Stephanie: An excellent "teaching moment" film about prejudice for families with children of middle-school age and up.

All the movies that Sophia & Stephanie review are in the Library collection. Check them out and see with whom you agree. Comments welcome!