An Evening with

Sherlock Holmes

A One Book One City Program

Hosted by

Les Klinger

EVERYTHING YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT HOLMES—AND MORE!!

Les Klinger is recognized as one of the world's foremost authorities on Sherlock Holmes. He is the editor of the two-volume collection of short stories and novels, The New Annotated Sherlock Holmes, which won the Edgar Award for Best Critical/Biographical Work, and was nominated for every other major award in the Mystery genre. Along with author Laurie R. King, he edited the recently released book, A Study in Sherlock: Stories Inspired by the Holmes Canon. Copies of the book will be available at this event for purchase and signing.

Free & Open to the Public

SIERRA MADRE PUBLIC LIBRARY

440 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre 626-355-7186

www.sierramadrelibrary.lib.ca.us

Sponsored by the Sierra Madre Civic Club